MR. BAYARD,

From the Committee to whom was referred, so much of the Governor's message, as relates to the Communication from the Governor of the State of South Carolina, made the following Report—Jan. 7, 1833.

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Governor's message as relates to the communication from the Governor of the State of South Carolina, respectfully submit the following

REPORT:

The communication from the Governor of South Carolina is composed of documents ordered by a Convention of the people of that State held in November last, to be transmitted to the Governors of the several States for the information of their respective Legislatures. These documents consist of a Report of a committee of twenty-one to the Convention, on the subject of the several acts of Congress imposing duties for the protection of domestic manufactures, with the Ordinance to Nullify the same, an address to the people of that State, and an address to the people of the United States. Your committee have examined the papers with great care and with that respectful attention which is due to the source from which they emanate but they cannot disguise their astonishment at the position assumed by the Convention and the arguments by which it is attempted to be sustained. The position taken by the
